

ROBIN LAKIN

COMEDIAN

DANGERFIELD'S

BIO

Robin Lakin, a native of Brooklyn, New York, has been lighting up the stage, screen, and stand-up comedy circuit in a career that spans over 30 years.

Recognized for her reoccurring appearances on The Wendy Williams Show in the "man on the street" segment, Robin has most recently performed virtually on Dat Phan and Friends, The Writers of Conan show at Flappers Comedy Club, and is currently making the film festival rounds as the lead in the award-winning short film "Postal", most notably at the Chelsea Film Festival in New York.

Her festival credits extend into the comedy world, with appearances in the Manhattan Comedy Festival, The Stand-Up 360 Comedy Festival, the prestigious Ladies of Laughter Competition, The San Diego Comedy Festival, and most recently as a semi-finalist in the Boston Comedy Festival, among countless others in New York City, Yonkers, and Westchester. When she isn't competing in festivals, she can be found knocking 'em dead at some of the best comedy clubs in the country, appearing at Carolines on Broadway, Dangerfield's Comedy Club, and Broadway Comedy Club to name a few.

WHAT SEPARATES ME FROM ALL THE OTHER COMICS IS THAT I WAS AN ACTRESS FOR OVER 30 YEARS. I DID OVER 50 COMMERCIALS, FILM, TV AND LOTS OF THEATER. I ALSO HAVE A MEDICAL DEGREE FROM ALBERT EINSTEIN COLLEGE OF MEDICINE. WHEN I LEFT ACTING I GOT MARRIED AND HAD THREE CHILDREN. WHILE RAISING MY KIDS I MANAGED TO SLIP IN MED SCHOOL. I KNOW. CRAZY!
